Attn: Stan Moore

Dear Stan,

In the evening hours on Monday August 5, 2002, Security Officer Brad Davenport assisted one of our employee's when she lost her keys to her vehicle. I was informed by KLC employee Chris Downey that Brad got under her vehicle and searched for a spare key that she was unsure of its where about's. Brad found the key for Chris and was able to send her on her way. Chris Downey lives in Frankfort and was elated that she did not have to call her husband to bring the extra key back to Louisville.

It's little thing like this that means a lot to the Kentucky Lottery Corporation Security Division. It makes all of us look good and goes along way with our employee's. I just wanted to recognize Brad and express to you our appreciation in Brad providing that extra "Customer Service"!!!

Sincerely,

Re: Glassworks Security Guards

To Whom It May Concern:

I just wanted to write you a note to let you know what a great job the security guards are doing at Glassworks. They are always exceptionally friendly and willing to lend a hand when needed. They are a pleasure to work with every day.

Best,

Dear Management,

I wanted to personally recognize the outstanding efforts of Delinda Jones. This past week (on June 14th, to be exact), Golden Foods\Golden Brands was undergoing a quality audit during which Delinda was asked to explain how she handles the paperwork specifically.

She did an excellent job and from all I hear through our internal network, she is doing a great job overall, as well. She is truly a star performer and her response to the auditors made GFGB also look like a star.

Our thanks goes out to Moore Security for sending us high quality personnel and to Delinda for the great job she does day in, day out.

Sincerely,

RE: Terry Davis, Security Officer at Kentucky Home Life Building

Dear Mr. Wilcher:

On behalf of all of the lawyers on our floor at the Kentucky Home Life Building, we wanted to write you this letter about your employee, Terry Davis. Terry is a very polite, caring, and diligent employee of your company who renders very valuable service to all of us in our practice of law at this building. As you can imagine, we are required to be down at the building at unusual hours and on weekends, and Terry is always a major help to us regardless of what we ask him to do. We would like you to give Terry a significant raise in recognition of his quality work and all he does to positively represent your company. We would certainly hate to see Terry leave the Kentucky Home Life Building to find another job which pays him better. Thank you very much for what we hope will be your attention to our request on behalf of Terry Davis.

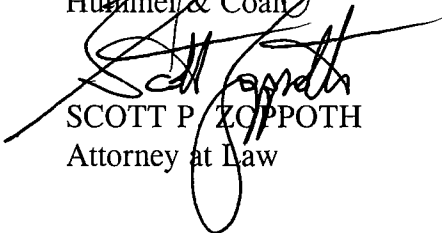

Very truly yours,

To Whom It May Concern:

Usually, people don't think to write a letter about a Security Guard or someone else who is in a role to protect people unless they are disappointed with that person's work. This, however, is not one of those letters. I am writing to say that I appreciate having the employees from Moores Security in our parking garage to look after us as we go from our cars to the building and then back to our cars in the afternoons. I am especially appreciative of one security guard in particular, Mr. Thomas Crabtree.

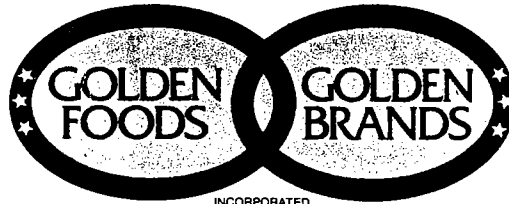

From the time Mr. Crabtree started working here in our garage, he has always had a smile on his face and a pleasant word to say to everyone. But even more than that, he has gone out of his way to make certain that I, and others, got safely to our vehicles each evening. He has been especially kind to me since there are numerous evenings when it is dark when I leave the building. He even "scolded" me about those evenings when I walked out late and he was in another part of the garage and I didn't let someone at the front desk know that I was walking out alone. His words were, "Now you ladies better let me know when you're coming out of that building late. You tell them to page me so I can make sure you get to your car safely." I took my "scolding" with a smile because I knew Mr. Crabtree was just making certain that nothing happened to any of us on his watch.

All I can say is you have a real valuable employee and he represents your company well. Again, thank you all for the wonderful service you provide for our building.

Sincerely,

RE: DELINDA JONES
COMMIDATION: JOB WELL DONE

Wednesday, May 17, 2000

We are happy with the work of the 3rd shift security officer Delynda Jones is performing on her shift At Golden Foods / Golden Brands. She excels in every aspect of this operation.

She observed a Golden Brands employee, Michael Irwin exit an overhead door, leaving the plant area unchecked. Delynda contacted the Golden Brands Supervisor, Bill Mitchell, and myself, as the employee was trying to re-enter the plant unnoticed. His Supervisor for this violation of Company Policy wrote up this employee who was off the clock from 9:50 until 10:25.

This was very observant of Delynda, and as a direct result of the Plants new security camera system, she Was able to contact the proper personnel immediately, proving the camera system works. This is a very useful tool for Golden Foods/Golden Brands Plant Security. Delynda was working and watching the computer monitor definitely doing her job on third shift.

I feel, as does Marina, who is direct contact with the officers on post that Delynda is, an excellent candidate For Post Supervisor, and the person most qualified at this time for that responsibility. In conclusion, Marina Harmon and I, Walt Oster recommend Delynda for Officer of the Month.

Sincerely,

Walt Oster

ATTN: Stan A. Moore, President

Dear Col. Moore:

Congratulations on being selected a winner of the Mass Mutual Blue Chip Enterprise Initiative Award. As one who has seen you go through the "ups" and "downs," it is always good to see a true fighter come out on top. My only regret is that they did not invite me to speak at the luncheon on your behalf!

Stan, over the years, most of what you hear from me are complaints about this or that. My days are so busy that usually the only things I can address with my vendors are the things that are broken. However, I wanted to take the time to tell you what a wonderful job Evelyn and Don Franz do at our facility. They are alert, dependable and conscientious. Best of all, they are a pleasure to work with. Their dedication to their job and loyalty to your organization are quite apparent.

I would greatly appreciate it if you would pass this along to the Franz's. They do a good job and should be recognized for it.

Best,

Dear Stan:

As I was reviewing the latest edition of the Moore News, I came across the article on the Officer of the Month. I think this is a great way to show appreciation for a job well done. I would like to take a moment to nominate two exceptional Security Officers to receive this honor in the next issue.

I cannot say enough good things about the two officers that work at Actors Theatre of Louisville, Carl Ester and Wayne Winters. Each of these individuals have served the theatre for many years and have always conducted themselves in a highly professional manner. In addition to their normal duties they go beyond what is commonly expected to assist in any way they can. Providing a physical security presence at the theatre can be a very challenging job. These officers have dealt with incidents such as disorderly conduct, angry patrons, and threats to employee safety. The ability to resolve these incidents in a diplomatic fashion is of great importance to the theatre. Using their experience and professional training both of these officers consistently achieve resolution of these types of incidents in a manner that is acceptable to ATL.

In addition to providing a valuable security presence, both Carl and Wayne are able to operate the telephone console and help direct visitors. Their knowledge of ATL operations is of great help to an organization, such as ours, that works with limited resources. The transitional nature of our work force creates a daily environment that demands heightened vigilance from our security officers. Carl and Wayne have proven over and over that they are up to these challenges and adapt to constantly changing conditions.

I hope this is not presumptuous of me to make this type of nomination to your newsletter; however, I felt a strong need to show my appreciation for the exceptional service Carl and Wayne provide to the theater.

Sincerely,

Daniel T. Wetzel
